

Souboukov called on the Adams line 11 June '59 at 1630 hrs. He wanted E. J. Underwood told him E. J. was on a well earned vacation and was not expected back for several weeks.

Buf (after writing to E. J. he would be here in July and needed no help from us) contacted Soubou seeking assistance to get the time off. Soubou was calling to see if we had any objections to a Mr friend of his writing an excuse for Buf to get off from work. I asked if the Mr friend wasn't off himself should something go wrong. I was informed that in this business we can't always be legitimate. I ~~offered~~ said I could write to Buf and offer to write a letter to his employer but Soubou say Buf doesn't want the letter from us. I told Soubou we had no objections to this ~~man~~ paper
